Precious Honey Love: —

This is going to be a short letter as I have been sewing all day. Accomplished a little & hope by to-morrow to have finished a dress.

I slept over night at Mom's house. We had some fun last night between Rose, Mom dear & I. Everybody was happy. Mom is feeling her old self again, and believe me that is why we are so happy. You said you are happy that Mom is — I get along so nicely, but honey, who could be otherwise with you mother?

I am oh so happy dear about those cases and do I hope P. Inspector turns the position over to you by the first of April? Oh yes! Honey, I believe that thing will go smoothly now for both of us.

I am so happy dear to get your big letter yesterday, which love, I shall answer with a nice big one Saturday. Do not mind these short letters as long you can believe me when I say I do not stop a minute as I can to get everything possible done. You understand precious, it is because I don't want to lose anything coming down to you. Heart, love dear, be not blue, hear? As soon as I finish writing to you, love, back to the machine I go.

Talk about being happy! I reckon I can't tell you how much I really am. May seems so near the end — and then, love!! — I couldn't sleep last night, thinking over about my trip. We went to bed rather late — and about 6.30 a.m. I was up and couldn't close an eye anymore. So I just laid and thought of you. I could see my self at the station meeting you — and hard! did I miss you! All last night I was talking to Mama about my going South. Mama was as happy and elated as I am.

Two weeks from to-day Faige is going to be married. I am going to get a gift from her together with mother. So that it will not stand either of us so much.

Dear, dear, I have that check for 12$. What shall I do with it? Your mama says I should cash it. What do you say? It would come in very handy and my mother says if I should decide to do so she will cash it, and take the responsibility of it, saying that I told her to use any check which may come, and she of course did not know. I can also say I have received an answer from the company. What do you say to it. I mean as a thing that I have for you. (over).

Kindly look after the Fatherling. Take the best of care of my darling precious, Nancy-Jane. Darling I love, love, love, and love and whom I want to love me ever, ever so much.

With all my hugs and kisses

Your ever loving wife

Frances.

Kindly explain, please, the shortness of the letter, but, dear, you understand, don't you. I am very tired tonight, but I want to do a bit yet before I go to bed. To-morrow Sunday. I shall be at it again. No rest for the wicked, eh — but I love it! I am as happy as happy, as I can be about these cases and have told everyone having precious hubby earned in 2 days. Some hubby I'll be got indeed do you say? Mrs Dunlin asked me to send her love — Rena + Theresa then.

Regards.
